RATED 4.5 WHERE IS IT !?

Barbeque Nation is located at Worli, it's inside Atria Mall.

WHAT DOES IT SERVE !?

Barbeque Nation is a buffet restaurant that specialises in live grills.

One gets to savour vegetarian and non vegetarian grills along with soup, salad, appetizers, mains and desserts.

It also offers make your own wok, chaat and variety of kulfis.

WHAT I LIKED THE MOST !?

Barbeque Nation regularly comes up with food festival round the year, I last savoured their seafood festival and this time they were celebrating mango season with a mango mania menu.

So there were lot of dishes that were given a mango twist.

Here is what I adored from each section -

LIVE GRILL -

There were ten variety of grills, there was paneer, pineapple, potatoes, mutton, chicken, fish and prawns.

I loved their chilli garlic tandoori prawns and mango flavoured paneer tikka alot.

WOK -

The wok section offers variety of veggies, chicken and fish to be tossed in a asian sauce of your choice.

I tried fish tossed in schezwan sauce and it tasted delicious.

MAINS -

The mains have been significantly improved, they offer indian gravy dishes in paneer, veggis and chicken and biryani.

They also have chinese gravy dish with noodles and continental main course dishes.

I really enjoyed their batter fried basa drizzled with lemon butter sauce, it was paired with potato mash and grilled veggies.

DESSERTS -

The dessert section is a mix of Indian sweets, pastries, ice cream and kulfi counter.
The pastries were given a mango twist and I enjoyed their mango cheesecake alot.
Traditional aamras served in short glasses was equally nice.
In kulfi counter I loved their oreo flavoured kulfi that had actual pieces of oreo biscuits.

WHAT'S MY TAKE !?

Barbeque Nation doesn't disappoint, each and every visit has been satisfying.
I love their idea of constantly coming out with something new so one doesn't get bored !
Service is quick and extremely warm !

Try them out !
